

Essential Skills for Lay Advocates in Tribal Court

May 24-28, 2010, Reno, Nevada

Please check the box next to each statement to acknowledge that you have read and understand it. This process will allow us to more fully evaluate your application.

- I understand that this course requires several components for completion and receipt of a certificate.
- This is a five (5) day course and I must attend all sessions to receive a certificate.
- There is an on-line pre-course assignment that I must complete prior to coming to the course.
- There will be an online post-course assignment that I must complete within one month of the end of the course (no later than June 28, 2010). This will be an exercise based on a civil or criminal scenario (your choice) that will be evaluated by the faculty. Timely and accurate completion of this assignment will result in your successful completion in the course and you will be mailed your certificate.
- This is a fully-funded course. The NJC will be paying for and arranging your travel and lodging for the course. You will also receive a reimbursement for meals not provided after completion of the course. If, for any reason, you fail to attend the course, you will be required to reimburse NJC for any costs incurred on your behalf.
