JUDICIAL SECURITY: PROTECTING YOUR HOME AND FAMILY

Instructor: Timm Fautsko, Principal Staff, Court Consulting Services Division, National Center for State Courts and John Muffler, United States Marshals Service, National Center for Judicial Security

Tuesday, March 16, 2010, 3:00 p.m.-4:15 p.m.

(12:00 p.m.-1:15 p.m. PT)

REGISTER: <http://tinyurl.com/ybwzubd>

Judges and their families may be at increased risk because of the high profile nature of their job and the difficult cases over which they preside. After this session, you will be able to identify ways you, your family and your co-workers are susceptible to harm while at work and away from the workplace; and you will be able to implement lifestyle changes to improve your personal security and the safety of others.

THE CONTOURS OF THE RIGHT TO CONFRONTATION AFTER CRAWFORD

Instructor: Prof. Penny White, University of Tennessee, College of Law

June 24, 2010, 3:00 p.m.-4:15 p.m. ET

(12:00 p.m.-1:15 p.m. PT)

In 2004, the United States Supreme Court upset more than a century of case law and began to redefine the Sixth Amendment right to confrontation in Crawford v. Washington. The lack of clarity in the decision prompted a hodgepodge of inconsistent lower court decisions. Even after five subsequent opinions, uncertainty about the extent and application of the right to confrontation remains. This course will begin with a brief review of the Supreme Court's confrontation clause cases since Crawford and then will address and analyze some of the many issues that affect the admissibility of evidence in criminal trials.

NOTABLE DECISIONS OF THE U.S. SUPREME COURT, 2009-2010 TERM

Instructor: Hon. David Gersten, Third District Court of Appeal, Miami, Florida

September 8, 2010, 3:00 p.m.-4:15 p.m. ET

(12:00 p.m.-1:15 p.m. PT)

REGISTER: <http://tinyurl.com/yaepwv3>

This session will review the most important decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court from the 2009-2010 term. Judge Gersten will summarize decisions of particular importance to judges with regards to constitutional, criminal, and civil law. Judge Gersten will also discuss any decision reached by the court that impacts judicial ethics and judicial election campaigns. Participants can ask questions during the webcast.

ETHICS IN THE EVERYDAY COURT: SECOND IN A SERIES

Instructor: Hon. Michael Keasler, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, Austin, Texas

October 26, 2010, 3:00 p.m.-4:15 p.m. ET

(12:00 p.m.-1:15 p.m. PT)

REGISTER: <http://tinyurl.com/ya8cf24>

On a daily basis, judges and court systems face scrutiny and criticism by the public. Further, judges regularly confront ethical issues in both their professional and personal lives. This session will provide judges with an up-to-date understanding of the ABA Model Code of Judicial Conduct that gives them tools to assist them in maintaining and raising ethical standards and public perceptions of their courts and the entire court system. This session will focus on demeanor and sexual harassment issues as well as any contemporary issues that may have been decided by the U.S. Supreme Court or other courts throughout the United States.

CLE MAY BE AVAILABLE Because of the different requirements in each state for CLE and, in particular, web-based education, NJC cannot guarantee that participants will receive CLE credit for the webcast. NJC will provide a Certificate of Attendance which participants may use to certify their attendance at the webcasts. Participants are responsible for submitting the Certificates of Attendance and any other required information in accordance with their state's specific rules.
