

Administrative Law - Advanced

June 15 - 18, 2026
Reno, NV

Tuition: $1,979 Conf. fee: $549

THE NATIONAL
JUDICIAL COLLEGE

The field of administrative law is changing quickly. At the end of its 2024 term, the United States Supreme Court issued two opinions that shook the field of administrative law to its core. How will these decisions impact state regulatory decisions and workload? The course will also tackle the use of AI and deepfakes, managing the rise in self-represented litigants, ethical conundrums, and improving writing and decision making to withstand judicial review.

What is included in the fees?

Tuition includes all in-person materials and access to digital materials. The conference fee provides for all breakfasts and lunches. Scholarships may be available.

"
This Administrative Law: Advanced Course was excellent. I would recommend it to any administrative law judge, new to the bench or very experienced. The materials were very useful. The lecturers and instructors were engaging and well-prepared. The collective group learning was engaging and rewarding. The topics were relevant and timely."

— 2025 participant

"
I think this course is very engaging. The in-person interaction made it a rich learning environment. We really got to know each other during breaks and in our discussion groups, which were amazing."

— 2025 participant

More info:
[judges.org/courses/
administrative-law-advanced-js-649/](https://judges.org/courses/administrative-law-advanced-js-649/)

Objectives

- Apply due process and other constitutional developments affecting administrative adjudication;
- Integrate recent evidentiary developments into your proceedings;
- Know how to consider all aspects when making a decision;
- Define Artificial Intelligence (AI) and distinguish between different types of AI;
- Discuss trends, promises and pitfalls of AI that judges should keep in mind moving forward;
- Describe recent SCOTUS rulings and current trends in administrative law;
- Fortify your decisions to survive judicial review; and
- Regulate the ethical behavior of counsel and presiding officers during administrative proceedings.

Established in 1963, the NJC is a nonprofit organization and the only educational institution in the U.S. that teaches judges of all types from across the 50 states, Indian Country and abroad.

Contact Us:
800.255.8343    info@judges.org
judges.org