

DECISION MAKING (JS 618)

This course familiarizes you with the factors that affect the judicial decision-making process and assists you in the analysis of your own thinking and style. Faculty address the psychology of decision making, how personality type may influence decision making, ethical considerations that may impact decision making, how appellate courts review decisions, and practical suggestions to aid in making decisions from the bench.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

During this course, you will learn to:

1. Identify your own decision making style;
2. Explore issues of fairness and equity;
3. Examine the use of judicial discretion;
4. Analyze conflicts of interest and ethical dilemmas;
5. Recognize the factors that can cause an appellate court to overturn a decision; and
6. Write and communicate decisions more clearly.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All types of adjudicators will benefit from this course.
