

Special Court Jurisdiction: Advanced (JS 611)

This course is designed for judges recently appointed or elected to specialized courts. The course is filled with valuable information and practice opportunities in the areas of law that new judges encounter in the courtroom, such as criminal law and procedure; evidence issues; judicial writing; sentencing issues; ethical issues; caseflow management, and more. Rich discussion with the course faculty, as well as with fellow students, will afford participants a unique opportunity to finely tune their basic bench skills.

During this course, you will learn to:

1. Describe the role and responsibilities of a judge.
2. Recognize the evolving role of the judge as a change agent in the community.
3. Apply a practical approach to Fourth Amendment issues and use approved guidelines for issuing search warrants.
4. Conduct criminal hearings and trials in compliance with constitutional and statutory standards.
5. Make better decisions regarding the admissibility of evidence.
6. Work effectively with court interpreters.
7. Create an environment of fairness and impartiality in the courtroom.
8. Communicate effectively in the courtroom and with the media,
... and more!
