The National Judicial College – the nation’s oldest, largest and most widely attended school for judges – is celebrating its 60th anniversary in 2023 with gatherings from coast to coast. The next will be September 28th at the legendary New York Athletic Club.

Every year the NJC educates judges from all 50 states and many foreign countries. Help the College continue its unparalleled service to the judiciary and democracy, and show your own support for equal justice under law, by becoming a named sponsor of any or all of the remaining 60th anniversary celebrations.

- New York City (September 28)
- Reno, Nevada (October 18)
- Las Vegas (December 7)

NEW YORK CITY IS NEXT

Join NJC faculty, alumni and other supporters of the College at the legendary New York Athletic Club on Sept. 28.

The theme for the night will be JUSTICE FOR ALL ... Being Heard and Ensuring Fairness. There will be a cocktail reception and program with several legal and judicial luminaries who will also be honored for helping make the world a more just place.
